Janet's Wee Blether

Yahoo, the snow has arrived! I spent 3 amazing days at Glenshee on some brilliant snow in January! Unfortunately the temperature rose and closed the area! Never mind - think positive and it will return - it's early yet!

The first Film/Blether night showed an excellent film with a bunch of young skiers/boarders seeking out the last bits of snow in Scotland in May 2015! It was a shame that only 8 people came along! Pity, you missed a good night.

Hope to see you on the slopes soon!

Dates for your Diary

Film Nights

Thursday 11th February 2016

Thursday 24th March 2016

Activity Days

Sunday 7th February 2016.

As usual these will be snow and weather dependent.

The Glenshee Website has the following -

“Storm Henry hasn't been kind to us as he hasn't left enough snow on the slopes.”

The resort is closed and as a result the Activity Day on Sunday 7th February is cancelled.

This is turning out to be one of those seasons where if the snow comes you have to drop everything and go - just as Janet did in January (see above)!

For those of you who missed the January Film Night, You missed an excellent film. A number of Freeride skiers and Snowboarders, along with a Camera crew took to the Scottish Hills in May 2015 and skied gulleys where there was still snow. They went to Glencoe, Braeriach at Cairngorm, Ben Lawers, Nevis Range and Ben Nevis. If we show it again - not to missed!
